

[Music] in our line of work you learned to depend on your partner I've got officers that I work with now that I trust with my life I need to be able to hear him my brother got his hearing aids first and he kept telling me over and over and over again you really need to go try another police officer told me about Miracle Ear when I first went I was worried because I didn't know how much my insurance would cover they were upfront about everything the professional assured me that this is all I would pay and he said being if you have to pay any more than this miracle-ear becomes like your family they take care of what we need and I can call them now and say I've got a problem and he's taken care of when I went to get tested doctor tape in Kingwood amazing he's like just come in he tested me and he put those sample ones in and we walked out on the front porch and I could hear the birds something I couldn't even for a long time I could hear when you lose your hearing you don't realize you're doing it but once you get it by then you realize what you've lost and that's huge